Central to the home is an office / sunroom, complete with built-in workstation and shelving – an ideal haven for hobbies or managing personal affairs. The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen and living area, with high ceilings enhancing the sense of space. The kitchen is equipped with modern conveniences including a dishwasher, electric cooktop, and wall oven, perfect for creating culinary delights.

Throughout, louvres and glass sliding doors with security screens allow natural light to cascade in, while tiled flooring ensures low maintenance and cool underfoot. Practicalities are not overlooked with a main bathroom that cleverly incorporates a laundry.

Outdoors, the large concrete swimming pool invites relaxation, while the fully fenced property ensures privacy. Entertain or simply unwind on the tiled undercover entertainment area or private balcony, which offers stunning views of Hinchinbrook Island and the ocean beyond.

Parking is ample with a remote-controlled garage and an additional rear carport. This captivating home promises a blend of comfort, convenience, and coastal living for the retiree ready to embrace their next chapter in beautiful Cardwell, Qld.
