In addition, there is a rented unit that further bolsters the investment potential, featuring an air-conditioned bedroom, a combination of bathroom and laundry facilities, and an inviting open plan kitchen and living area.

The business aspect of the property is equally compelling, with the Cardwell Newsagency providing a stable and reputable trade. The package also includes vacant land at 64 Bowen Street, expanding the scope for further development or diversification.

Location is paramount, and this offering does not disappoint. Perfectly positioned on a major thoroughfare, the site benefits from the visibility of 6,000+ vehicles daily, ensuring a captive audience for any commercial venture. The facility has the provision to consist of 3 separate shops, currently utilised as a single expansive space.

With its outstanding highway and beachfront location, a mere two hours' drive from both Townsville and Cairns, this property is not just a purchase; it's a lifestyle change with immense commercial potential.

Seize this exceptional opportunity to own a slice of Cardwell's charm and capitalise on its thriving community and tourist appeal. This is more than an investment; it's a gateway to a future rich with possibility.
