Internally, the shed has been fitted out with comfort and functionality in mind. There is an air-conditioned built-in bedroom with a feature barn-style sliding door, along with a modern, full-size kitchen offering generous bench and cupboard space, dishwasher, gas cooktop and electric wall oven.

The combined bathroom and laundry feature tiled flooring and includes a full-size shower, toilet, vanity, laundry wash tub and provision for a washing machine.

Outside, the generous allotment provides plenty of usable space and room to consider building your dream home in the future, subject to the necessary council and relevant approvals. The property is fully fenced with a Colorbond sliding front gate, while a bore, irrigation system, water tank and septic system are already in place.

Adding further value is an installed 10.56kW solar system, comprising 24 x 440W solar panels with an 8kW inverter.

For buyers considering the future potential of the allotment, a soil testing report is available, together with a comprehensive collection of supporting property documentation.
